

WAGI 2017 GENDER & DEVELOPMENT TRAINING COURSES

GENDER FAIR EDUCATION

JUNE 26-30 | GFE

Course Fee: Php 12,000

GFE is an intensive one-week course designed for development workers and educators (i.e. teachers, administrators, module writers, trainers, etc.) in formal and non-formal educational settings. The course introduces the human rights and gender based perspectives in schools and other teaching learning environment. Topics include education as human rights; gender fair language; gender mainstreaming in the curriculum and implementation of CHED Memo in the school system.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS AND GOVERNANCE

JULY 3-7 | IWHR&G

Course Fee: Php 12,000

Running on its 19th year, IWHR&G is an academic-based women's human rights course offered in the Philippines. The program discusses the use of international human rights instruments from gender and rights perspectives in analyzing complex issues of discrimination, inequality and oppression brought about by the intersecting and intertwining factors of class, gender, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, and others.

GENDER RESPONSIVE PLANNING & BUDGETING

JULY 24-27 | GRPB

Course Fee: Php 14,000

The gender and development (GAD) budgeting process secures financial support for activities promoting gender equality and women's empowerment. Financial support, while necessary, must be complemented by strengthened organizational capacity for successful planning and implementation. This course will introduce the theories and practice of GAD budgeting in the Philippines. In line with PCW-NEDA-DBM Joint Circular No. 2012-01 on GAD Plans and Budgets and Accomplishments to implement Magna Carta of Women. The approach will use case studies and sharing of participants' experiences to enhance learning.

MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

JULY 31-AUG 4 | MDP

Course Fee: Php 12,000

MDP provides a critical overview of the processes, dynamics and challenges of migration in the context of a globalized world. The seminar will discuss a broad range of issues relative to migration, including migration and human rights; social costs of migration; comparative policies of migration; and forced migration in the context of political and environmental crises. Trafficking, refugee and asylum issues will also be included, especially in the context of the migration refugee crisis in Europe and Asia. The course utilizes interactive and case study approaches in understanding the complex dimensions of migration, trafficking and refugee movements.

ASEAN @ 50

AUG 7-10 | ASEAN

Course Fee: Php 14,000

This training course will discuss key issues in the three pillars of ASEAN-political, economic, and socio cultural. Using a gender lens perspective, the training will cover among others the progress in the promotion and implementation of human rights and gender equality programs; the opportunities and challenges of regional, economic, and financial integration including issues on trade and investment, education, connectivity, and migration. It will also look into the challenges and barriers towards ASEAN economic integration, with particular focus on its impact on women.

LIMITED SLOTS ONLY!

REGISTRATION GUIDELINES:

- All courses are open to government officers and staff, NGO workers, educators, professionals, activists, community workers and graduate students.
- Only pre-registrants who submitted their registration forms on or before the published deadlines are considered registered.
- Fees include bank fees, meals (lunch, morning and afternoon snacks for the duration of the course); certificate of participation, and training kit. Fees are non-refundable.
- Seminar venue will be at Miriam College, Katipunan Avenue, Loyola Heights, Quezon City.
- For Miriam College graduate students, IWHR&G, GFE, and MDP courses can be credited for 3 units academic work upon completion of the Gender and Development Training Courses and submission of a research paper requirement.
- Participants who are attending to earn units must register at the Registrar's Office.

WAGI 2017 GENDER & DEVELOPMENT TRAINING COURSES

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS AND GOVERNANCE

JULY 3-7 | IWHR&G

Course Fee: USD 500

Running on its 19th year, IWHR&G is an academic-based women's human rights course offered in the Philippines. The program discusses the use of international human rights instruments from gender and rights perspectives in analyzing complex issues of discrimination, inequality and oppression brought about by the intersecting and intertwining factors of class, gender, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, and others.

MIGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

JULY 31-AUG 4 | MDP

Course Fee: USD 500

MDP provides a critical overview of the processes, dynamics and challenges of migration in the context of a globalized world. The seminar will discuss a broad range of issues relative to migration, including migration and human rights; social costs of migration; comparative policies of migration; and forced migration in the context of political and environmental crises. Trafficking, refugee and asylum issues will also be included, especially in the context of the migration refugee crisis in Europe and Asia. The course utilizes interactive and case study approaches in understanding the complex dimensions of migration, trafficking and refugee movements.

ASEAN @ 50

AUG 7-10 | ASEAN

Course Fee: USD 500

This training course will discuss key issues in the three pillars of ASEAN-political, economic, and socio cultural. Using a gender lens perspective, the training will cover among others the progress in the promotion and implementation of human rights and gender equality programs; the opportunities and challenges of regional, economic, and financial integration including issues on trade and investment, education, connectivity, and migration. It will also look into the challenges and barriers towards ASEAN economic integration, with particular focus on its impact on women.

LIMITED SLOTS ONLY!

REMINDERS:

VISA: Foreign participants are responsible in obtaining the necessary visas to attend the courses.

TRAVEL: Participants are expected to arrange and coordinate their travel bookings to and from Manila, and accommodations for the duration of the Gender and Development Training Courses.

HEALTH INSURANCE: All participants are advised to arrange their own insurance coverage for the duration of the course and travel.

COURSE FEES: Fees are inclusive of bank fees; lunch; morning and afternoon snacks for the duration of the course; certificate of participation; and training kit.

DRESS CODE: The dress code is lounge suit/smart casual, unless otherwise stated. May to June is warm in the Philippines but please bring shawl or light coats suitable for air-conditioned function rooms.

CURRENCY: The official currency of the Philippines is Philippine Peso (PHP).

TIME ZONE: UTC/GMT+8

CLIMATE: Weather will be mostly rainy, with temperature ranging from 22°C to 33°C

The Women and Gender Institute (WAGI) is Miriam College's specialized center for advocacy on women's rights, gender equality, and non-sexist learning. It offers a cross discipline perspective on women's empowerment that is interlinked with democracy, human rights, social justice and value formation.

For inquiries, please contact WAGI:

☎ Tel: (632) 435-9229 or 580-5400 loc. 3590

☎ Cel: +63977-286 4390

☎ Fax: (632) 435-9229

✉ Email: wagi@mc.edu.ph