Media Monitor

- Work for a leading international media organisation
- Great team

Be a part of our team as a full-time Media Monitor.

Your key focus will be to monitor the media and identify relevant stories according to client briefs and production targets. This position plays a major role in our ability to provide breaking news and daily stories to our clients.

We offer extensive training and ongoing support to ensure your success.

This position calls for someone who:
- is client focused
- is flexible to changing environments and priorities
- thrives in a production based environment
- must have at least 1-2 years of work experience
- is able to start immediately
- must be willing to work in Alabang, Muntinlupa

You must have an interest in news and current affairs, fast reading skills and a strong attention to detail in order to meet tight deadlines. You must be used to a production based environment with a clear desire to meeting daily, weekly and regular targets.

Excellent English comprehension and communication skills are prerequisite. Exposure to Australian and New Zealand accents is an advantage.

To apply, please forward your resume with photo, three (3) writing samples, and a cover letter addressed to Patricia Dominguez at patricia@velocitymadegood.co.nz